Civil War People and Places

- 1. Fort Donelson earthen fort located on west bank of the Cumberland River in Dover, Tennessee.
- 2. Fort Heiman earthen fort located on west bank of Tennessee River across from Ft. Henry.
- 3. Fort Henry earthen fort located on east bank of the Tennessee River, twelve miles from Fort Donelson.
- 4. Cumberland River Fort Donelson is located on this waterway.
- 5. Tennessee River Forts Henry and Heiman are located on this waterway.
- 6. Confederacy States that seceded from the United States to create the Confederate States of America: TN, AK, TX, MS, AL, GA, FL, NC, SC, VA, LA
- 7. Union (Federals) United States of America; those states that remained loyal to the United States.
- 8. Ulysses S. Grant overall commander of U.S. forces for Campaign for Fort Henry and Donelson; promoted Chief of Commander of United States forces in February 1864.
- 9. "Unconditional Surrender" Grant nickname acquired after the surrender terms issued at Fort Donelson.
- 10. Jefferson Davis President of the Confederate States of America, 1861-1865
- 11. Abraham Lincoln President of the United States, 1861-1865
- 12. Bluegrass State nickname for Kentucky
- 13. Volunteer State nickname for Tennessee
- 14. Dover, TN busy, prosperous river town during the antebellum (pre-war) period in Tennessee.
- 15. Stewart County, TN located in the northwest corner of Tennessee. Dover is the county seat.
- 16. Gustavus Henry Tennessee Senator at the beginning of the war; Fort Henry was named for this senator
- 17. Tennessee Militia the state guard of Tennessee.
- 18. Mary Newcomb a Civil War nurse who helped with the wounded during the battles of Fort Henry and Donelson. Her husband, Sgt. Hiram Newcomb, was mortally wounded at Fort Donelson.
- 19. Mary Ann Bickerdyke known as "Mother" Bickerdyke; she followed Grant's army the entire Civil War
- 20. Mary Jane Safford- young Cairo, Illinois women who assisted with the wounded soldiers
- 21. Nannie Haskins young girl from Todd County, Kentucky who wrote a diary of her experiences living in Clarksville during the Civil War
- 22. Major General Don Carlos Buell commander of the Department of the Ohio (all Union troops east of the Cumberland River to the Appalachian Mountains)
- 23. Henry Halleck commander of the Department of the Missouri (all Union troops west of the Cumberland River to Arkansas)
- 24. Andrew Hull Foote veteran sailor and commander of Union gunboat and timberclad flotilla
- 25. General P.G.T. Beauregard -Confederate hero of Fort Sumter and Manassas.
- 26. Gideon J. Pillow Tennessee brigadier who brought Confederate troops to Fort Donelson from Hopkinsville and Clarksville.
- 27. Nathan Bedford Forrest Confederate Lt. Colonel, overall commander of cavalry troops at Fort Donelson, escaped with some of his troops before surrender
- 28. John B. Floyd senior commander of Confederate troops at Fort Henry and Donelson; brigadier general
- 29. John McClernand Illinois brigadier general, former Congressman, Union brigade commander for the campaign
- 30. Simon B. Buckner junior commander at Fort Henry and Donelson; offered surrender of Fort Donelson to Brigadier General U.S. Grant; brigadier general
- 31. Lew Wallace Union brigade officer at Fort Henry and Donelson; author of Ben Hur.
- 32. Lick Creek tributary of the Cumberland River, east side of Fort Donelson.
- 33. Governor Isham G. Harris Tennessee governor at the beginning of the Civil War.
- 34. General Robert E. Lee Commander of Confederate forces in Virginia; assumed overall command of Confederate troops in January 1865.
- 35. Ironclads Essex, Cincinnati, Carondelet, and St. Louis -gunboats that attacked Fort Henry
- 36. Timberclads Tyler, Conestoga and Lexington Admiral Foote's Union gunboats that took Fort Henry